

Community Acts of Kindness for Lent

Matthew 25: 40 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me'.

Handing out chocolate and water to commuters at Risborough Railway Station

David, Pete and Louise got up extremely early to surprise commuters with a free bar of Anton's chocolate which challenged people to think about the real meaning of Lent. Some commuters stopped for a chat and were intrigued as to why we were doing this.

Handing out sweets on the High Street

Ryan and a team of young helpers handed out sweets to passers-by and chatted to those who stopped at our 'Welcome' poster.

Meanwhile, David swept the pavements clear of snow, which was much appreciated by some of our elderly residents!

Community Acts of Kindness for Lent

Matthew 25: 40 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me'.

Friday morning coffee concert

We treated everyone to a free concert by Cantilena Winds, a local concert band conducted by Michael Pegram
Over 100 people attended and were treated to coffee and cakes by our lovely hostesses!

Ladies Pamper Evening

Jenny Goldsmith, from 'House of Colour' gave our ladies advice on which colours to wear, and Tracy Jennings from 'Tropic' showcased safe and natural beauty products.

There was also advice on make-up, diet and nutrition. Over 25 ladies enjoyed being pampered on the night, and left with a bag of 'freebie toiletries'.

Community Acts of Kindness for Lent

Matthew 25: 40 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me'.

Holiday at Home – a skiing holiday

Over 50 'young at heart' Risborough residents enjoyed a holiday at home in church, with 2 days of entertainment, hospitality, friendship and fun. Gill Wilkinson and her team did a magnificent job and will be running another holiday in the summer.

Hanging Easter Eggs with our Schoolchildren outside Mc Colls

David, Pete, Bill, David Stephenson, Stu, Nicky Mackinnon, Heather and Ryan aided our Mayor and local schoolchildren to hang the Easter eggs they had decorated at school on the trees outside Mc Colls. Go and take a look as you pass by!

This turned out to be a fun and lively community event, and the children love showing their parents their artwork as they walk past.

